This is a free event, sponsored by the Ministry of Education.
Attendees will have a choice of two workshops to attend, please pick ONE:

Option One: Poutiria te Aroha

“Tamaiti wāwāhi tahā – aratakina ki te puna aroha”

Supporting and raising our tamariki in aroha

Presented by Katarina Mataira

Poutiria te Aroha

Reo o te ngākau – A parenting programme drawing on the wisdom of te ao Māori in alignment with the philosophy and strategies of parenting with nonviolence. A space to learn and to kōrero with others about parenting.

No-one told you it was going to be this hard?

Where's the manual? Whats the secret? Will my kids be OK?

Option Two: Parenting with nonviolence

Presented by Isabel Crawforth & Jackie Gillett

Te Mauri Tau

Jackie and Isabel will be co-facilitating a workshop based on a philosophy of parenting developed by Ruth Beaglehole, who has been an advocate for children for over 50 years. We will explore what it means to parent well – how we can notice family patterns and consider a parenting paradigm that is based on healthy, loving and connected relationships.

Suitable for anyone who spends time with children of any age.

I long for the day when we would greet each other and be able to say with the deepest of hearts “The children are well”.
